NEWS LETTER EDITOR— DAN MCNEIL II- krcs.news@gmail.com

FROM THE PRESIDENT

If you missed the third and final picnic of the summer flying season, you missed beautiful weather to fly, and a terrific turnout of members, family, and friends for this event. It was a wonderful time of flying and talking with other flyers! The food was terrific!

Guess we have set a precedent for the 2014 flying season. A special Thank You to Verna for heading up the cooking and the clean-up and to Walt for purchasing the dogs and burgers!!!

I was at the field the other evening watching the planes flying and solving the worldly problems with the great minds of the club and noticed that the sun was setting a little earlier and that it wasn't in the same place as it was during the middle of the summer. It made me think of the great times we have had over the summer flying our planes and the great times shared by members discussing the issues and, Yes! recovering planes from the trees and the corn!!

We have a great club with great members- talk it up- don't keep it a secret! Invite someone to share your experiences in flying!

Finally- Kudos to the field crew for keeping the field in excellent flying condition!

DUE TO THE LABOR DAY HOLIDAY THE MEETING WILL BE ON SEPT 9th.

FLY SAFELY

Sam
