FROM THE V.P.

April, 2014

This is my first experience writing for our KRCS Newsletter, so here it goes.

Hopefully spring is just about here and if you are like me you are checking your aircraft and charging batteries and of course waiting to head to the field. Speaking of our flying field, it is going to require some maintenance after this harsh winter. We will be organizing some work parties when the weather decides to cooperate so stay tuned and please help out at the field if you can.

The Officers and Board Advisors are currently reviewing the By-Laws and field safety rules as required by the By-Laws. Any additions or changes noted will be sent to all members for their review and voted on at a stated meeting.

At the March meeting we had the raffle drawing for the "Fun Cub" kit and the winner was Phil Cartier, a club member. Congratulations Phil, enjoy the Cub. Dan and Verna McNeil organized the entire raffle and sold tickets which resulted in a financial gain for the club. Verna and Dan we all thank you for all you do for our club.

April's meeting should be a special one with an informative talk by professional "Wing Walker", Jana Leigh McWhorter. Come on out and bring a guest or two to hear this interesting presentation.

That's all for now. Think warm weather and calm winds and I'll see you at the field!

Lamont "Zim" Zimmerman

Don Epler reported that the downed tree at the gate of our field has been removed by Sam's nephew.

Bill Moore thanked the club for all the support given relating to the death of his wife.

Henry Spangler mentioned that the By-Laws should be reviewed and brought up to date.

Sam said that the Civil Air Patrol would like to bring their members to our field in June for demonstrations. A member of the Patrol will be at our April meeting

Dan II said that Jane Leigh McWhorter (the wing walker lady) will be at our April meeting and has a very interesting presentation.

Meeting was adjourned at 7:25 upon motion by George and seconded by Henry.

Phil Cartier won the Fun Cub raffle.

Respectfully Submitted

Walt Hiester, Secretary

IMPORTANT!!!

Jana Leigh McWhorter will be joining us at the April meeting to share her experiences as a professional Wing Walker.

She especially loves to share with women, so invite the wives as well as friends and family. You will not want to miss this!!
