FROM THE PRESIDENT

Here it is Sunday and it's raining quite heavy. Having time on my hands I decided to do some preventative maintenance on my planes by charging up the ni-cad batteries to keep them in tip top shape. Now's a good time to check over your plane(s) and make any necessary repairs before the flying season starts.

If anyone is missing a Pilot certificate for one or more of the levels they passed. Please let me know so that we can get them into your hands!
Give me a call @ 944-4491 or e-mail me @ rcbipeflyer@aol.com
